

Numbers 28:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

Analysis

God commands: 'After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.' During Unleavened Bread week following Passover, daily offerings continued with special additions. The Hebrew 'reiach nichoach' (sweet savour) indicates offerings pleasing to God - anthropomorphic language showing God delights in His people's worship. The seven-day pattern emphasizes completeness and dedication. These offerings foreshadowed Christ who offered Himself as 'a sweet smelling savour' to God (Eph 5:2). Our lives should likewise be continual offerings pleasing to God (Rom 12:1), not sporadic or grudging service but sustained joyful devotion.

Historical Context

Unleavened Bread lasted seven days following Passover (v.16-25), commemorating Israel's hasty Exodus from Egypt when they carried unleavened dough (Ex 12:34). Each day required burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings, and sin offering. This week-long celebration combined remembrance of deliverance with sustained worship and rest (first and seventh days were Sabbaths, v.18, 25). The daily repetition emphasized that redemption should prompt continuous thanksgiving, not momentary celebration. Paul applied this spiritually: 'Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: Therefore let us keep the feast' (1 Cor 5:7-8) - perpetual celebration of redemption through holy living.
