

Numbers 28:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Also in the day of the firstfruits, when ye bring a new meat offering unto the LORD, after your weeks be out, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work:

Analysis

For Pentecost (Feast of Weeks), 'when ye bring a new meat offering unto the LORD... ye shall have an holy convocation.' This feast celebrated first fruits of wheat harvest, occurring fifty days after Passover. The Hebrew 'minchah chadashah' (new grain offering) presented first fruits to God, acknowledging Him as provider. The 'holy convocation' (miqra qodesh) called all Israel to gather for worship and cessation from work. This feast's New Testament fulfillment came at Pentecost when the Holy Spirit descended (Acts 2), making believers the first fruits of new creation (James 1:18, Rev 14:4). The church is God's harvest from Christ's death and resurrection.

Historical Context

Pentecost (Greek for 'fiftieth') occurred seven weeks after Passover/Firstfruits (Lev 23:15-16), celebrating spring wheat harvest completion. Unlike Passover's unleavened bread, Pentecost offerings included leavened bread (v.17), possibly symbolizing the church with sin still present though redeemed. The holy convocation required cessation from servile work (v.26), emphasizing worship's priority over productivity. Fifty days after Christ's resurrection (the ultimate Passover Lamb), the Spirit came, constituting the church and empowering witness. Peter's Pentecost sermon yielded 3,000 converts - first fruits of gospel harvest (Acts 2:41). The feast foreshadowed the church age.
