

Numbers 3:25

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

Analysis

---

The sons of Gershon received charge over the tabernacle's structural coverings—the tent, covering, and outer veil. This assignment demonstrates God's orderly distribution of sacred responsibilities, with each Levitical family having distinct roles in serving God's dwelling place. The coverings protected the holy place from external defilement, symbolizing the separation required between God's holiness and a sinful world. This division of labor illustrates the body of Christ principle (1 Corinthians 12), where different members have different functions but all serve the same Lord.

Historical Context

The Gershonites camped on the west side of the tabernacle (verse 23) and numbered 7,500 males one month old and above. During wilderness travels, they transported the tabernacle's fabric components using wagons (7:7), unlike the Kohathites who carried the sacred vessels on their shoulders. This organizational structure continued through Israel's history until the temple replaced the tabernacle.
