

Numbers 31:28

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And levy a tribute unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

Analysis

And levy a tribute unto the LORD (וְקָרְבָּתְּ מַחְסָּס לֵיהָה)—From soldiers' half: 1 in 500 (mechkas, tribute/tax) goes to Yahweh through Eleazar (31:29). From the congregation's half: 1 in 50 goes to Levites (31:30). The differential rate reflects soldiers' greater risk and smaller base population.

One soul of five hundred—includes persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep. Everything acknowledges God's provision. This isn't mere taxation but theological recognition: victory comes from Yahweh (31:49—not one soldier lost!), therefore firstfruits belong to Him. Romans 11:36 captures it: 'Of him, and through him, and to him, are all things.'

Historical Context

This tribute becomes precedent for dedicating war spoils to the Tabernacle/Temple (cf. David dedicating Philistine plunder, 1 Chronicles 18:11). The miraculous victory—no casualties among 12,000 soldiers—made the tribute both gratitude offering and recognition of divine intervention.

Study Questions

1. Why does God require tribute from those who already risked their lives in His commanded war?
2. How does proportional giving (1/500 vs 1/50) reflect both justice and mercy in God's economic laws?
