

Numbers 35:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Ye shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge.

Analysis

Three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan—the strategic distribution ensured no Israelite was more than 30 miles from safety. This geographical equity reveals God's impartiality: the two-and-a-half tribes east of Jordan received equal provision with the nine-and-a-half tribes in Canaan proper.

Jewish tradition held that roads to these cities were clearly marked and well-maintained, with signposts reading 'Refuge! Refuge!' at every intersection. Similarly, the gospel is proclaimed widely (Mark 16:15), leaving none without access to Christ, our true miklat.

Historical Context

The Transjordan cities (Bezer in Reuben, Ramoth in Gad, Golan in Manasseh) were designated before the conquest was complete (Deuteronomy 4:41-43), showing God's immediate concern for justice and mercy even before Israel fully possessed the land.

Study Questions

1. What does the equal distribution of cities on both sides of Jordan reveal about God's justice transcending geographical and tribal divisions?
2. How do the well-marked roads to refuge cities illustrate the clarity and accessibility of the gospel message?
