

Numbers 4:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And upon the table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon:

Analysis

The table of showbread's covering required specific items—'dishes, and spoons, and bowls, and covers to cover withal'—all included in transport. The Hebrew kelav (its vessels/implements) indicates complete provision. The bread that was continually before the Lord (Exodus 25:30) represented the twelve tribes' constant dependence on God's provision. That it was covered and transported intact teaches that worship continues even during transitions. The church similarly maintains ordinances (Lord's Supper) even during persecution or displacement. Christ, the true Bread (John 6:35), sustains His people constantly.

Historical Context

The showbread (Hebrew lechem panim—bread of the Presence) consisted of twelve loaves representing the twelve tribes perpetually before God. Priests ate the old loaves when replacing them weekly (Leviticus 24:5-9). David's eating this bread when fleeing Saul (1 Samuel 21:6) showed that ceremonial law bends for genuine need—a principle Jesus cited (Matthew 12:3-4) when criticized for Sabbath activity.
