

Numbers 6:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings,

Analysis

The threefold offering pattern (burnt offering, sin offering, peace offering) represents comprehensive worship—total dedication (burnt offering), atonement for sin (sin offering), and fellowship with God (peace offering). Even voluntary consecration required sin offering, demonstrating that human holiness is always incomplete and needs atonement. The specifications (male lamb, ewe lamb without blemish) anticipated Christ, the perfect Lamb who fulfills all types of offerings through His sacrifice. No human devotion, however sincere, merits salvation apart from substitutionary atonement.

Historical Context

---

The requirement for animals 'without blemish' meant careful selection, often involving significant expense. These perfect animals symbolized the perfect sacrifice of Christ. The sin offering's inclusion shows that even during a period of special consecration, atonement for sin remained necessary. This taught Israel that their best efforts at holiness could not earn salvation—redemption required blood sacrifice pointing to the coming Messiah.
