

Numbers 6:27

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.

Analysis

The repetition of 'I will bless them' provides emphatic assurance of God's commitment to Israel's welfare. This is divine promise, not wishful thinking—when God speaks blessing, it shall surely come to pass. The blessing encompasses both temporal provision and spiritual relationship, anticipating the 'every spiritual blessing' believers receive in Christ (Ephesians 1:3).

Historical Context

This concluding affirmation transformed the priestly blessing from ritual formula into guaranteed divine promise. Israel could proceed with confidence, knowing their God had personally committed to their blessing and protection.
