

Numbers 7:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

Analysis

The young bullock, ram, and lamb without blemish for burnt offering represent comprehensive dedication—strength (bullock), leadership (ram), and innocence (lamb). The burnt offering was wholly consumed on the altar, symbolizing complete surrender to God. The requirement that animals be without blemish teaches that God deserves perfect offerings, not defective gifts. This prefigures Christ, the spotless Lamb of God who offered Himself wholly for our redemption. The Reformed doctrine of Christ's perfect sacrifice fulfilling all Old Testament types is foundational here.

Historical Context

Burnt offerings were completely consumed by fire, with nothing reserved for the priests or the offerer. This total consumption symbolized complete devotion to God. The three different animals together represented a substantial offering, demonstrating the princes' significant wealth dedicated to God.
