

Numbers 9:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

Analysis

The case of men defiled by dead bodies unable to keep Passover introduces a problem requiring divine solution. Their ceremonial uncleanness prohibited participation in the holy feast, yet they desired to obey. The Hebrew tame (unclean) created an impossible situation—they could not become clean quickly enough. This reveals the inadequacy of the ceremonial system to fully accommodate human frailty. Their plea for inclusion (verse 7) shows genuine piety, leading to divine accommodation (verses 9-11). This pictures how Christ's work removes the barrier between holy God and defiled sinners.

Historical Context

Defilement from dead bodies required seven days of purification (Numbers 19:11-12), making same-day Passover participation impossible. The dilemma was genuine: obey the purity law and miss Passover, or participate in Passover while ceremonially unclean and profane the holy feast. Both options violated God's law until He provided a solution.

Study Questions

1. How does this dilemma illustrate situations where God's commands seem to conflict?
2. What does God's gracious solution teach about His heart toward sincere worshipers?
3. How does Christ resolve the tension between God's holiness and our defilement?
