

Philippians 4:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

Analysis

I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

Two women, likely leaders (worked with Paul in gospel, v. 3), have conflict. To auto phronein en kyriō ("think the same in the Lord") echoes 2:2. Unity requires Christ-centeredness. This verse contributes to Philippians chapter 4's themes of joy, peace, contentment, and gratitude—Paul's prison epistle climax showing joy transcending circumstances through Christ's sufficiency.

Historical Context

Philippians chapter 4 concludes Paul's most joyful letter, written from Roman imprisonment (c. AD 60-62). The Philippian church, Paul's most faithful financial partner, sent support via Epaphroditus. Paul's gratitude, exhortations to joy and peace, and contentment teaching modeled Christ-centered living regardless of external circumstances—a powerful witness in the Roman world.
