

Philippians 4:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

Analysis

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

Mēden merimnate ("be anxious for nothing")—merimnaō ("worry, be anxious"). Instead: proseuchē kai deēsis meta eucharistias ("prayer and petition with thanksgiving"). Gratitude prevents entitled complaining. This verse contributes to Philippians chapter 4's themes of joy, peace, contentment, and gratitude—Paul's prison epistle climax showing joy transcending circumstances through Christ's sufficiency.

Historical Context

Philippians chapter 4 concludes Paul's most joyful letter, written from Roman imprisonment (c. AD 60-62). The Philippian church, Paul's most faithful financial partner, sent support via Epaphroditus. Paul's gratitude, exhortations to joy and peace, and contentment teaching modeled Christ-centered living regardless of external circumstances—a powerful witness in the Roman world.
