

Proverbs 10:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

Analysis

Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, but righteousness delivers from death. Ill-gotten gain provides no lasting benefit - what's gained unrighteously cannot truly profit. In contrast, righteousness delivers from death - both temporal consequences and eternal judgment. This verse refutes pragmatic immorality, insisting that wrong means can never produce right ends. Only righteousness, ultimately found in Christ, saves from death.

Historical Context

Reflects wisdom literature's recurring theme that wickedness, however temporarily profitable, leads to death while righteousness leads to life. Ancient Israel saw this confirmed repeatedly in individuals' and nations' fates.
