

Proverbs 11:30

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

Analysis

The righteous produce fruit that gives life to others—their influence blesses and preserves. Winning souls demonstrates wisdom's outward orientation toward others' eternal good. This evangelistic dimension shows that wisdom compels mission, sharing the knowledge of God that brings salvation.

Historical Context

The tree of life imagery recalls Eden and anticipates Revelation 22:2. Those who walk with God mediate His life-giving grace to others, fulfilling the Abrahamic promise that through Abraham's seed all nations would be blessed.
