

Proverbs 11:31

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth:
much more the wicked and the sinner.

Analysis

Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth; much more the wicked and the sinner. If even the righteous receive recompense (reward or discipline) for their deeds, how much more will the wicked face judgment! The verse uses qal vachomer (light to heavy) reasoning - if lesser case is true, greater case certainly is. Peter quotes this verse (1 Pet 4:17-18), applying it to judgment beginning with God's house.

Historical Context

Concludes Proverbs 11 by emphasizing comprehensive divine justice. No one escapes divine accounting - righteousness receives appropriate reward/discipline; wickedness receives deserved judgment.
