

Proverbs 13:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

Analysis

Pride breeds conflict through its refusal to submit or compromise. The well-advised demonstrate humility in receiving counsel, promoting peace. All strife traces to pride's root—seeking one's own glory rather than God's and others' good. Gospel humility, recognizing our dependence on grace, enables peaceable relationships.

Historical Context

Pride destroyed kings and kingdoms throughout Israel's history. From Saul's downfall to Rehoboam's folly, refusing wise counsel led to division and disaster.
