

Proverbs 15:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

Analysis

Plans fail without counsel, but succeed with many advisors. This repeats 11:14's emphasis on wisdom through community. God typically guides through biblically-wise counselors, not mystical individual impressions. Rejecting advice reflects proud self-sufficiency contrary to body-of-Christ interdependence.

Historical Context

Kings' counselors provided essential advice for military, political, and economic decisions. Wise kings heeded counsel (David), while foolish ones ignored it to their ruin (Rehoboam).

Study Questions

1. How actively do you seek multiple biblical perspectives before major decisions?
2. Who are your regular counselors, and do they speak truth or merely affirm your preferences?
