

Proverbs 16:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Analysis

When a person's ways please the LORD, even enemies are at peace with them. This promises providential protection for the obedient, though not immunity from all conflict. God can turn hearts (as He did with Joseph's brothers) or restrain opposition when it serves His purposes.

Historical Context

David experienced both versions—Saul's relentless pursuit and Philistines' surprising acceptance when David walked with God. God's sovereignty over human hearts was repeatedly demonstrated in Israel's history.
