

Proverbs 17:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts.

Analysis

As refiners test metals, the LORD tests hearts. The fining pot and furnace purify by removing impurities through heat—similarly, God's trials expose and remove sin from believers. This refining process, though painful, is evidence of God's love and commitment to our sanctification (1 Peter 1:6-7).

Historical Context

Metallurgy was well-developed in ancient Near East. The refining process required skill to remove dross while preserving precious metal—a vivid picture of God's precise work in sanctification.
