

Proverbs 21:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

Analysis

This repeats 16:2's warning against self-deception. Human self-justification is unreliable—only God's evaluation matters. The heart's weighing reveals motives hidden from external observers and even from ourselves. We need divine illumination to see ourselves truly.

Historical Context

Judges weighed evidence to determine justice. God's perfect weighing of hearts ensures no hidden sin escapes notice, no sincere intention goes unrewarded.

Related Passages

Study Questions

---

1. How do you combat the tendency to judge yourself by intentions while judging others by actions?
2. What does God's weighing reveal about your heart's true state?
