

Proverbs 21:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

Analysis

The wise man achieves what brute force cannot—he 'scaleth the city of the mighty' through strategy and intelligence. Physical strength alone is insufficient; wisdom provides superior advantage. The 'strength' trusted by the mighty becomes their downfall when opposed by superior tactics. This affirms wisdom's supremacy over mere power. In spiritual warfare, believers overcome not through human might but through God's wisdom and power (2 Corinthians 10:4). The principle extends broadly: wisdom solves problems that force cannot, wins conflicts that violence escalates, and achieves objectives that coercion attempts. Wisdom harnesses strength effectively; without wisdom, strength often produces destruction.

Historical Context

Ancient warfare included besieging fortified cities. While military strength mattered, clever strategy often determined outcomes—Jericho fell through obedience, not assault.
