

Proverbs 21:4

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

Analysis

The wicked's 'high look' (Hebrew 'rum ayin'—haughty eyes) and 'proud heart' are their 'plowing'—the Hebrew 'niyr' can mean lamp or plowing/tillage. If the latter, their labor produces only sin. Pride characterizes the wicked's fundamental orientation. Proverbs repeatedly condemns pride (6:17, 16:18). Reformed theology sees pride as the original sin—Satan's 'I will be like the Most High' (Isaiah 14:14) and Adam's grasping for autonomous knowledge. Pride rejects God's authority and exalts self. All the wicked's works flow from this prideful heart and are therefore sinful.

Historical Context

In honor-shame cultures, visible pride (haughty eyes, arrogant posture) signaled covenant unfaithfulness. Israel was called to humble dependence on Yahweh, making pride a fundamental violation of their relationship with God.
