

Proverbs 21:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

Analysis

Wealth gained 'by a lying tongue' is 'a vanity tossed to and fro' and pursued by 'them that seek death.' The Hebrew 'hebel' (vanity) means vapor or breath—insubstantial and fleeting. Ill-gotten gains provide no real security. The phrase 'tossed to and fro' (Hebrew 'niddaph'—driven, scattered) suggests instability. Seeking wealth through lies ultimately seeks death—both physical and spiritual. Reformed theology recognizes that the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil (1 Timothy 6:10). Dishonest wealth cannot satisfy and leads to destruction.

Historical Context

Ancient merchants could easily deceive in transactions using false weights, misrepresenting goods, or breaking agreements. Such dishonesty might bring short-term wealth but led to loss of reputation, legal consequences, and God's curse.
