

Proverbs 23:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

Analysis

Proper discipline 'shall deliver his soul from hell'—the stakes are eternal. Physical correction aims at spiritual salvation by training children in righteousness, teaching consequences, and breaking stubborn will. This doesn't mean discipline saves (only Christ does), but faithful parenting is a means God uses to bring children to faith. Discipline teaches that actions have consequences, authority must be obeyed, and sin brings punishment—preparing hearts for gospel truth. Parents who refuse discipline risk their children's souls. Hebrews 12:5-11 applies this principle to God's fatherly discipline of believers. Earthly discipline reflects and teaches about divine discipline aimed at holiness and ultimate blessing.

Historical Context

Israelite law prescribed severe penalties for persistent rebellion, showing how seriously God views parental authority and children's obedience as foundational to covenant community health.

Study Questions

1. Do you discipline with the eternal perspective that you're training a soul, not merely modifying behavior?
2. How does God's fatherly discipline of you inform your approach to disciplining children?
