

Proverbs 23:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

Analysis

Envyng sinners betrays spiritual perspective—they may prosper temporarily but face eternal judgment. Instead, fear the LORD continually, focusing on covenant relationship rather than comparative outcomes. This anticipates Psalm 73's resolution of why the wicked prosper while the righteous suffer.

Historical Context

Israel constantly faced temptation to envy neighboring nations' prosperity while they suffered. Prophets called them back to covenant faithfulness regardless of circumstances.

Study Questions

---

1. When do you envy sinners' prosperity instead of fearing the LORD?
2. How can you maintain eternal perspective when the wicked seem to flourish?
