

Proverbs 26:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

Analysis

---

Fervent lips with an evil heart are like silver dross covering an earthen vessel. The Hebrew 'dalaq' (burning/fervent) and 'keseph siygim' (silver dross) creates imagery of fraudulent covering. Silver-covered pottery appears valuable but isn't. Smooth speech covering evil heart is similarly fraudulent - appearing genuine while being worthless. This warns against trusting eloquence without evaluating character. Proverbs 26:24-25 expand this: 'He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him; When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.'

Historical Context

Ancient pottery could be coated with metallic glaze to appear valuable. Without assaying, fraud wasn't apparent. Similarly, smooth speakers could deceive without discernment. Jesus warned of false prophets who 'come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves' (Matthew 7:15). Paul described false teachers who 'by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple' (Romans 16:18). Eloquence doesn't guarantee truth; evaluate content and character, not merely presentation.

Study Questions

1. What smooth speakers are you trusting without evaluating their character or message's truth?
2. How might your own speech be 'silver dross' - eloquent covering for evil heart?
3. What discernment would see through fervent lips to detect wicked hearts?
