

Proverbs 26:27

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

Analysis

---

Whoever digs a pit will fall into it; whoever rolls a stone, it will return on him. The Hebrew 'karah' (dig) and 'galal' (roll) describe self-defeating plots. Trap meant for others ensnares trapper; stone pushed onto others rolls back. Evil schemes backfire on schemers. This promises justice - those plotting others' destruction ultimately destroy themselves. Psalm 7:15-16 teaches: 'He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.'

Historical Context

Biblical history illustrates this repeatedly. Haman built gallows for Mordecai, was hanged on them himself (Esther 7:9-10). Daniel's accusers threw him in lions' den; they and their families were thrown in instead (Daniel 6:24). Jesus taught: 'With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again' (Matthew 7:2). This principle - reaping what you sow - pervades Scripture. Galatians 6:7: 'Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.'
