

Proverbs 29:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

Analysis

A man's pride shall bring him low—The sequence is inevitable: ge'on adam (man's pride, arrogance) leads to tashpilennu (shall humble him, bring him low). God opposes the proud (James 4:6, 1 Peter 5:5). Scripture repeatedly demonstrates this principle: Pharaoh, Nebuchadnezzar, Herod—all humbled by divine judgment.

The contrast offers hope: honour shall uphold the humble in spirit. The shefal-ruach (lowly in spirit, humble-minded) will uphold (tomek, support, sustain) kavod (honor, glory). Jesus embodied this: 'Whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted' (Matthew 23:12). True honor comes through humility, not self-promotion.

Historical Context

Solomon himself exemplified pride's danger—his early humility (1 Kings 3:7-9) gave way to later arrogance through wealth and political alliances. The prophets warned Israel that national pride would bring exile. The early church saw Herod Agrippa struck down for accepting worship (Acts 12:21-23).
