

Proverbs 3:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

Analysis

Wisdom promises peaceful sleep without fear. The Hebrew 'pachad' (fear/dread) describes anxious worry that disrupts rest. Sleep quality reflects internal peace - the guilty and anxious sleep poorly; the righteous rest well. This verse promises that wisdom produces clear conscience and trust in God's providence, enabling peaceful sleep. Proverbs 3:24-26 expand this theme: wisdom delivers from fear because God is your confidence.

Historical Context

Ancient world lacked modern security measures - night brought vulnerability to theft, attack, wild animals. Peaceful sleep required trust in God's protection. Psalm 4:8 and 127:2 similarly connect godliness with peaceful sleep, contrasting anxious self-reliance with restful trust.
