

Proverbs 3:34

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Surely he scorneth the scorers: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

Analysis

God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble. The Hebrew 'luwts' (scoffer/mocker) represents proud rejection of wisdom. 'Chanan' (grace) indicates unmerited favor. This verse, quoted in James 4:6 and 1 Peter 5:5, establishes fundamental spiritual principle: pride blocks grace; humility receives it. God's disposition toward us correlates with our posture - arrogant self-sufficiency meets resistance; humble dependence meets generous supply.

Historical Context

Throughout Scripture, God brings down the proud and exalts the humble. Pharaoh, Goliath, Nebuchadnezzar, Herod - all examples of pride's judgment. Mary's Magnificat (Luke 1:51-53) celebrates this pattern. The cross supremely demonstrates it - Christ's humiliation leads to exaltation (Philippians 2:5-11).
