

Proverbs 4:27

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

Analysis

---

Don't turn right or left; remove your foot from evil. The Hebrew 'natah' (turn aside) and 'suwr' (remove/depart) command straight forward progression in righteousness. Wandering right or left leads away from God's path. This verse demands focused directness - not exploring alternative routes but steadily pursuing the right way. Moral clarity requires resisting distractions, however appealing they may seem.

Historical Context

---

Deuteronomy 5:32-33 commanded Israel: 'Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. Ye shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you.' Faithfulness meant unwavering adherence to covenant stipulations despite surrounding nations' alternative paths.
