

Proverbs 4:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

Analysis

The repeated emphasis on getting wisdom (also v. 7) shows its supreme value. The Hebrew 'qanah' (get) means acquire at cost, implying wisdom requires sacrifice. Neither forgetting nor declining suggests the constant danger of spiritual drift—wisdom must be actively retained through renewed commitment and dependence on God's grace.

Historical Context

Unlike inherited wealth or position, wisdom required personal pursuit and acquisition. Even Solomon's God-given wisdom needed cultivation through diligent study and application of divine truth.
