

Proverbs 4:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

Analysis

Exalt wisdom, and she will promote you; embrace her, and she brings honor. The Hebrew 'salal' (exalt/esteem highly) and 'chabaq' (embrace/cherish) describe affectionate valuing. Those who highly esteem wisdom receive honor in return. This isn't self-promotion but divine exaltation - God honors those who honor wisdom. The embrace imagery suggests intimate relationship, not distant admiration.

Historical Context

Throughout Scripture, God exalts those who humble themselves and value divine wisdom above worldly glory. Joseph, Daniel, Esther - all exemplified wisdom honored by God and humans. First Peter 5:6 universalizes this principle: 'Humble yourselves...under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.'
