

Proverbs 5:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

Analysis

Nearly destroyed in the midst of the congregation. The Hebrew 'kimeat' (almost/nearly) and 'raah' (evil/ruin) describe barely avoided catastrophe. Public disgrace threatened - sin committed privately almost became public scandal. This verse warns that secret sins tend toward public exposure. The congregation/assembly witnessing the ruin adds social shame to personal destruction.

Historical Context

Achan's sin (Joshua 7), David's adultery (2 Samuel 12), Gehazi's greed (2 Kings 5) - all private sins became public scandals, bringing shame before the congregation. Ecclesiastes 10:20 warns that even private words can be revealed: 'A bird of the air shall carry the voice.' Jesus taught that hidden things will be revealed (Luke 8:17).
