

Proverbs 6:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

Analysis

Poverty comes as a traveler and want as an armed man - the consequences of sloth arrive inevitably and forcefully. The Hebrew 'mehalak' (traveler/wayfarer) suggests steady approach, while 'magen' (armed man/warrior) indicates forceful arrival. Poverty doesn't come violently but arrives inexorably. The fool doesn't see it coming because decline is gradual. When recognized, it's too late - poverty arrives with warrior's force, difficult to resist.

Historical Context

Ancient economy lacked modern safety nets - no unemployment insurance, welfare, or social security. Laziness produced genuine destitution. While we should compassionately help the poor (many poor through no fault of their own), Proverbs here addresses preventable poverty resulting from laziness. Paul echoes this: 'If any would not work, neither should he eat' (2 Thessalonians 3:10).
