

Proverbs 7:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him,

Analysis

She seizes him, kisses him, and with brazen face says... The Hebrew 'chazaq' (seize/grasp) and 'nashaq' (kiss) indicate aggressive initiative. 'Strengthened her face' ('heezi paneyha') means bold, shameless, brazen. This woman doesn't wait passively but pursues aggressively. Modern culture increasingly normalizes female sexual aggression, but biblical wisdom recognizes this as predatory reversal of God's design. Seduction inverts proper order.

Historical Context

Biblical sexuality affirms male pursuit and female response as creational norm, though moderns may debate cultural versus creational elements. Regardless, aggressive predatory sexuality (from either gender) contradicts wisdom's way. Aggressive seduction short-circuits proper discernment and decision-making, overwhelming reason with passion. This tactic succeeds because it bypasses careful consideration.
