

Proverbs 7:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

Analysis

For she has cast down many wounded; numerous are her slain. The Hebrew 'naphal' (fall/cast down) and 'chalal' (slain/pierced) describe casualties of sexual sin. This isn't isolated incident but pattern - many wounded, strong men slain. Sexual temptation destroys broadly and consistently. No one is immune; the strong fall as easily as the weak. This warns: don't presume on your strength; many stronger have fallen.

Historical Context

Biblical history confirms this warning: Samson, David, Solomon - all powerful men destroyed or damaged by sexual sin. First Corinthians 10:12 warns: 'Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.' Overconfidence precedes downfall. Sexual temptation humbles the proudest, strongest, wisest. Only humble vigilance provides safety.
