

Proverbs 8:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

Analysis

Riches and honor are with wisdom, enduring wealth and righteousness. The Hebrew 'osher' (riches), 'kavod' (honor/glory), 'howr' (wealth), and 'tsedaqah' (righteousness) describe comprehensive blessing. Wisdom brings both material prosperity and moral character, temporal success and eternal righteousness. This isn't prosperity gospel but recognition that wisdom generally produces flourishing. Godly character and practical competence typically result in provision and respect.

Historical Context

Solomon exemplified this - receiving both wisdom and wealth (1 Kings 3:11-13). Job, despite temporary suffering, was restored to double blessing (Job 42:10). Proverbs observes general patterns, not absolute guarantees. Exceptions exist (righteous poor, wicked wealthy), but wisdom's path generally produces blessing. The principle: godliness with contentment is great gain (1 Timothy 6:6).
