

Proverbs 8:33

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

Analysis

Hear instruction and be wise; don't neglect it. The Hebrew 'shama' (hear/obey) and 'para' (neglect/ignore) present binary choice. After celebrating wisdom's eternal nature and creative participation, the application is urgent: hear and obey! The implication: rejecting such wisdom is catastrophic folly. When God Himself offers wisdom that precedes and creates all reality, only fools ignore it.

Historical Context

Moses similarly concluded law-giving with urgent call to obedience: 'I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life' (Deuteronomy 30:19). Joshua challenged Israel: 'Choose you this day whom ye will serve' (Joshua 24:15). The pattern throughout Scripture: revelation demands response; truth requires obedience.
