

Proverbs 8:36

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

Analysis

Sin against wisdom is sin against one's own soul, bringing death. This stark contrast with verse 35 presents the ultimate choice: life or death, blessing or curse. Missing wisdom's mark (the Hebrew 'chata' means to miss) leads to self-destruction. All who hate wisdom embrace death, whether consciously or not.

Historical Context

The covenant curse of death for disobedience (Deuteronomy 30:19) underlies this warning. Rejecting wisdom equals rejecting God Himself, incurring eternal consequences.
