

Proverbs 9:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

Analysis

Whoever is simple, let him turn in here. Identically to Wisdom's invitation (9:4), Folly addresses the simple. The Hebrew 'pethiy' (simple/naive) describes the undecided, gullible, easily swayed. Both wisdom and folly target the same audience - those not yet committed. The simple must choose between competing invitations. Neutrality isn't option; passivity defaults to folly. Active choice for wisdom is required.

Historical Context

Joshua challenged Israel: 'Choose you this day whom ye will serve' (Joshua 24:15). Elijah confronted: 'How long halt ye between two opinions?' (1 Kings 18:21). Jesus taught: 'He that is not with me is against me' (Matthew 12:30). Throughout Scripture, neutrality is impossible. The simple must actively choose wisdom or passively default to folly. No middle ground exists.

1. In what areas are you remaining 'simple' - uncommitted between wisdom and folly?
2. How does recognizing that passivity defaults to folly motivate active choice for wisdom?
3. What decision for wisdom are you delaying that requires immediate commitment?
