

Psalm 10:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

Analysis

The wicked man's boast 'I shall not be moved' ironically echoes the righteous man's trust in God (Psalm 16:8, 62:2). This reveals how sin perverts even godly confidence into prideful presumption. The claim 'no adversity' will come demonstrates the hardening effect of prosperity, fulfilling the warning that riches can deceive (Mark 4:19).

Historical Context

Reflects the false confidence of those who prospered during peaceful times in Israel, forgetting God's sovereignty and their own mortality.
