

Psalm 10:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

Analysis

Paul quotes this verse in Romans 3:14 as evidence of universal human depravity. The 'mouth full of cursing' reveals that speech flows from heart condition (Matthew 12:34). The Hebrew terms for 'oppression' and 'deceit' indicate violence cloaked in false words—a pattern seen throughout Scripture in false prophets and teachers.

Historical Context

Describes the speech patterns of unjust rulers and judges in ancient Israel who used their authority to oppress rather than protect.
