

Psalm 102:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

Analysis

The restoration of Zion will cause the nations (goyim) to fear God's name and kings to honor His glory. This missionary vision sees Israel's restoration as a witness to the world, demonstrating God's faithfulness and power. The Reformed understanding of God's glory as the chief end of all things recognizes that even suffering and restoration serve to magnify God among the nations. Christ's resurrection and the church's growth fulfill this prophecy as people from every nation worship the God of Israel.

Historical Context

Isaiah and other prophets repeatedly connected Israel's restoration with the nations coming to worship Yahweh (Isa 60:1-3). The return from exile did bring some Gentile converts, but the ultimate fulfillment comes through Christ and the church.
