

Psalms 102:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble;
incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

Analysis

The psalmist's desperate plea for God to hear and answer quickly reveals the intensity of his affliction. 'Hide not thy face' uses covenant language; God's face represents His favor and presence (Num 6:25-26). The urgency 'in the day when I call' emphasizes immediate need. This lament anticipates Christ's experience of divine abandonment on the cross (Matt 27:46), where He bore the full weight of God's hidden face so that believers might always experience His favorable presence.

Historical Context

Psalms 102 is titled 'A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.' Some scholars suggest it was written during the Babylonian exile, reflecting both personal and national distress.
