

Psalms 104:29

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

Analysis

When God hides His face, creatures are troubled; when He takes away breath (ruach), they die and return to dust (aphar). This sobering verse acknowledges God's power over life and death. Hiding His face suggests withdrawal of favor, causing distress. Taking away breath (the same word as Spirit) causes death, reversing the creation of Adam. Returning to dust recalls Genesis 3:19's curse. All life exists moment-by-moment by God's sustaining power. Christ's death ('gave up his spirit,' John 19:30) and resurrection demonstrate His authority over death itself.

Historical Context

Ancient Israelites understood breath as the life-principle given by God. Death was seen as God withdrawing this gift, returning the body to the dust from which it came (Gen 2:7, 3:19).
