

Psalm 105:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.

Analysis

God 'called for a famine upon the land' and 'brake the whole staff of bread.' This demonstrates God's sovereignty even over disasters. Famine wasn't random but divinely appointed to accomplish His purposes. 'Staff of bread' (matteh lechem) refers to bread as life's support. Breaking it means removing sustenance entirely. This severe famine drove Jacob's family to Egypt, setting up the Exodus. God uses even hardship to fulfill His plans. Christ is the bread of life (John 6:35) who sustains believers spiritually even when physical provision fails.

Historical Context

The famine mentioned in Genesis 41-42 affected the entire region, driving Jacob's family to Egypt where Joseph had prepared abundant grain. This famine was part of God's plan to bring Israel to Egypt.
