

Psalms 105:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

Analysis

To 'glory in his holy name' means to boast in God's character and reputation. Hearts of those seeking the LORD should rejoice. This connects worship (glorying in God's name) with active pursuit (seeking). 'Seeking' (darash) implies diligent inquiry and pursuit, not passive waiting. Rejoicing characterizes genuine seekers—finding God brings joy. Christ promised that seekers would find (Matt 7:7-8). The Reformed doctrine of effectual calling recognizes that all who genuinely seek God do so because He first called them.

Historical Context

God's 'holy name' represents His complete character and reputation. Glorying in His name meant celebrating His uniqueness and covenant faithfulness, particularly His redemptive acts in Israel's history.
