

Psalms 105:4

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore.

Analysis

---

Seeking the LORD and His strength, and seeking His face continually demonstrates persistent pursuit of God's presence and power. 'Strength' (oz) refers to God's might. 'Face' (panim) represents His favorable presence. 'Continually' (tamid) means perpetual, unceasing seeking. This isn't occasional religious duty but constant orientation toward God. Christ taught persistent prayer (Luke 18:1) and promised His presence with disciples always (Matt 28:20). The Reformed practice of daily devotion and Sabbath worship reflects this call to continual seeking.

Historical Context

In Israel's worship, seeking God's face meant approaching His presence in the tabernacle/temple. This verse spiritualizes that practice, calling for constant pursuit of God's presence, not just occasional visits.
