

Psalm 106:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word:

Analysis

This verse recounts Israel's refusal to enter Canaan (Numbers 13-14). 'They despised the pleasant land' uses ma'as (מָאָס), meaning to reject, refuse, or despise. The 'pleasant land' (eretz chemedah, אֶרֶץ חֶמְדָה) was the desirable, delightful Promised Land. To despise God's gift shows contemptible ingratitude. 'They believed not his word' explains the root: unbelief in God's promise to give them the land. Despite all the miracles they'd witnessed, they believed the negative report of ten spies over God's word and the faithful report of Joshua and Caleb. This demonstrates that unbelief is ultimately refusal to trust God's word, preferring human assessment over divine promise.

Historical Context

Numbers 13-14 records the spy incident. Twelve spies explored Canaan for 40 days. Ten brought an 'evil report,' emphasizing the giants and fortified cities. Only Joshua and Caleb trusted God's promise. The people believed the fearful majority, wept all night, and even proposed returning to Egypt. God sentenced that generation to die in the wilderness over 40 years. Their bodies fell in the desert while their children entered the land they despised.

Study Questions

1. How does unbelief practically manifest as despising God's gifts and promises?
2. What 'pleasant lands' (God's good gifts) do believers today reject through unbelief?
3. How can we cultivate faith that trusts God's word over contrary circumstances?
